School yard rules

Agreement between ISGR & Guldhedsskolan

Playground Rules:

- Guldhedsskolan and ISGR pupils are in their own school yards.
- Those on playground duty should wear a yellow band. Each school covers its own playground
- The rules of those on duty are what counts. Every adult should be prepared to speak to their own schools' students and those of the other school. Students must obey all adults
- No one is allowed to climb or jump on the outdoor tables
- No one is allowed to climb in the trees
- No fighting or fake fighting
- No mobile phones are allowed outside at break times
- No sweets, ice-cream or chewing gum should be consumed in the playground areas
- Sticks and stones are prohibited for Kindergarten. They may be used for other grades but only for building purposes
- Walking and climbing on fences is not allowed.

Football Pitch:

- Each school uses the football ground nearest to its own sports hall. Any sports lesson has priority of use. Each school has responsibility to look after and maintain its own goal posts and to keep them in the correct place on the football field. No one is allowed to move the goals, or climb on the goal net or goal posts

Swings:

- Maximum number of children on a tyre swing is 2. The swings should not be swivelled round. Also swings are not supposed to "bump" into each other. Maximum time on a swing is 5 minutes. Jumping off the swing is prohibited
- Maximum number of children on the friendship swing is 3
- Like the other swings, jumping is prohibited

The Hill:

- The slides are made for normal use, so no one is allowed to slide differently than sitting on their bottom
- Climbing or standing on the slide is not allowed. Use the stairs to go to the top of the slide

During winter:

- Snowball throwing is not allowed
- Playing on the ice is forbidden unless the student is wearing a helmet

Bamba rules – Agreement between ISGR & Guldhedsskolan:

- Children are not allowed into bamba without an adult
- No hats, caps or jackets are to be worn in bamba
- Everyone should behave pleasantly and speak quietly
- Everyone should respect the bamba staffs' queuing system
- All adults should be prepared to speak to all students
- Food should not be taken out of bamba
- Balls should not be taken into the bamba
